Jeep revealed new details for its first-ever electric vehicle, the upcoming Wagoneer S SUV.

The near-production version of the Wagoneer S mimics the popular Jeep Grand Cherokee's clean body lines and front fascia of Jeep's trademark waterfall grill but features a lower roofline and sleeker overall shape, which Jeep says is needed for overall aerodynamic efficiency.

Nvidia stock retreated in early trading on Thursday, after a rip-roaring rally sent the company past a $3 trillion market cap for the first time.

Nvidia has been the poster child for investor enthusiasm in artificial intelligence, which accelerated with OpenAI's release of ChatGPT in late 2022. The stock is up over 140% this year and 200% over the last year; Nvidia shares have gained more than 3,300% in the last five years.
